

Klove impacts the okc area in such an uplifting, encouraging way. I know of numerous individuals (myself included) who have made it through tough times with the help of positive music and scripture from KLOVE radio. Replacing it would be a horrible decision and affect so many in a negative way. Do not take such a life changing positive avenue away from so many people. The community needs klove.